For almost two decades, brides have entrusted Michelletouche with creating the perfect look for their wedding day. Michelletouche is founded and headed by Michelle Tan, considered one of Kuala Lumpur's most sought-after bridal make-up artists and stylists. Together with a long-standing experience with beauty and cosmetics giants such as Estée Lauder, Lancome, Sisley and Bobbi Brown, her vast body of commercial work and a passion for beauty and styling, Michelle's easy-going personality and passion for people makes every session a breeze as well as a memorable experience.

Tell us a little bit about Michelletouche's specialty?

Our team consists of make-up and hair artists professionals with extensive experience so our bride can be assured of a truly personalized, top-notch service. Another specialty that our clients love and appreciate is our mechanical Air Brush Foundation Service for that smooth, flawless finish.

Michelle's tip: A good make-up artist is essential for the biggest day of your life, and will be able to make you look and feel your best instantly.

What other services do you offer besides bridal make-up?

We also provide Chinese traditional wedding dress (“qua”) and shoes, hair accessories and costume jewellery. While our passion is for weddings and making brides look exquisite on their wedding day, we continue to do hair and make-up for fashion shows, TV commercials, and other commercial pursuits.

What are your fees like for bridal make-up and hair?

We have three packages priced between RM800 and RM1,200. Do log on to our website for more information. You may also catch a special deal for the month too!

What is your top tip for best looks for brides?

Many women choose make-up and hair styles that are unsuitable for them or are outdated. Get clippings of images with the type of look and style you like, and then talk to a professional make-up artist about personalizing that look or style to suit you. A good

How many trial consultations should a bride have with you before her actual wedding?

She should have at least one trial consultation with us. Visual aids from the Internet or magazine clippings are very useful to indicate what she is looking for before we try different colours and techniques until she is satisfied. Hair and make-up is also designed to complement the wedding’s style, colours, themes, flowers, etc, but most importantly, the bride’s personal style. After a trial, our team will create the perfect look for our bride.

Should brides bring their wedding gowns to the trial make-up and hair session?

It is a really good idea but not compulsory. Seeing her in her wedding gown will give us a good sense of her personality and style. 💕
